

Short Bio
of
Dr. Moriam Quadir

Moriam Quadir is a Professor in the Department of English, East West University, Dhaka, Bangladesh. She was awarded MONBUKAGAKUSHO scholarship in 2007 to pursue her PhD in Applied Linguistics at Hiroshima University, Japan. Her research interests include EFL learners' motivation, demotivation, remotivation, group dynamics, and innovative approaches to language teaching and learning.

Short Bio
of Shamima Akter Shanta

Shamima Akter Shanta has been teaching as a senior Lecturer in the department of English in East West university, Dhaka, Bangladesh. She is a recipient of the Australia Awards Scholarship from Bangladesh. She completed her second master's program in Education (TESOL) from University of Wollongong, Australia in 2019. Her research interests involve contextual material development, use of ICT in teaching and learning English, teacher cognition and professional development of teachers. She has presented and published papers nationally and internationally.

Short Bio
of Saifa Haque

Saifa Haque, FHEA, is a senior lecturer at the Department of English, East West University. She was a Hornby scholar at the University of Warwick, UK. Her research interest revolves around the use of technology in teaching, teacher training and assessment.

Short Bio
of Imran Jahan Digonto

Mr. Imran Jahan Digonto is a Lecturer at the Department of English, East West University, Bangladesh, and a former Instructor of Asian University for Women, Bangladesh. His research interests include Applied Linguistics and English Language Teaching (ELT), Rhetorics, Education and Development, e-learning, and ecolinguistics.

Short Bio
of
Md. Aminul Islam Shazid

Md. Aminul Islam Shazid is a lecturer in the Department of Mathematical and Physical Sciences. He studied Applied Statistics and Data Science at the University of Dhaka. His research interests are predictive modeling, public health, bioinformatics, and remote sensing with satellite data.